

Wind Body of New Yorker Who Was Killed by Avalanche.
BERNE, Switzerland, June 2 (via Paris).—Swiss soldiers yesterday discovered in the Valley of the Etsch in the Engadine Mountains the body of Henry Hoffmann of New York, who was killed in an avalanche on Feb. 20 last while on a ski excursion.

ERUPTION ITCHED ON BOY'S FACE

Spread Until Covered Chest. Could Not Sleep. Chin and Breast One Solid Scale. Entirely

HEALED BY CUTICURA SOAP AND OINTMENT

"When our oldest boy was about twenty months old an eruption appeared on his face and spread until it covered his chest. It came out first in pimples and then had a watery discharge and itched terribly. They itched so he could not sleep nights and his chin and breast were one solid scale. "An old lady advised us to try Cuticura Soap and Ointment, so we purchased. We used two boxes of Ointment with the Soap and in about six weeks he was entirely healed." (Signed) Mrs. Leonard Youngs, R. F. D. 3, Fillmore, N. Y., Aug. 19, 1915.

Sample Each Free by Mail With 32-p. Skin Book on request. Ad-dress post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston." Sold throughout the world.

A Special Purchase of Lindeman Pianos and Player-Pianos

in seven attractive groups

$175 for a new $250 upright piano
$215 for a new $260 upright piano
$230 for a new $295 upright piano
$345 for a new $500 player-piano
$365 for a new $600 player-piano
$408 for a new $525 player-piano
$425 for a new $525 player-piano

LINDEMAN & SONS built all the pianos, and the player-pianos which it is our rare good fortune to be able to offer for so little as $175 to $425. The rest are Henry and S. G. Lindeman instruments. They all came to us in a special purchase made possible only by the need of factory space for the building and seasoning of grand pianos.

All Are New and in Perfect Condition

Tones are rich, sweet, musical. The player-actions in the player-pianos are widely and favorably known. The cases are of mahogany or oak, in good designs.

We Warrant Every One

We warrant them as fully as we warrant any piano in the Salons; that is to say—they are MUSIC-producing instruments of high merit, durably constructed, and possess no weakness or flaw of any sort. And they are at prices which command instant action on the part of music lovers or givers of gifts to June Brides.

Convenient Terms Will Be Arranged Personally With Each Purchaser

LYMAN IS SET BACK IN MOTION TO DISMISS CHARGES OF FRAUD

One of Alleged Victims Gives Promoter a Hot Reply From Witness Stand.

Lawyer John Grant Lyman, acting counsel for Promoter John Grant Lyman, alias John H. Putnam, who is charged by the Government with appropriating thousands of dollars from his customers and is being tried before Judge Wolverton in the United States District Court on a charge of using the mails to defraud, exploded his usual legal bomb when court opened this morning. This was nothing less than a motion for a dismissal of the charge against him.

"I respectfully submit that the Government has lost its case on its own showing," he declared. "In the evidence shown here yesterday it is proved that postal inspectors seized the effects of John H. Putnam & Co., which is contrary to law." The motion was overruled and Martin D. Verdier of Grand Rapids, Mich., was put on the stand. Mr. Verdier said that he had sent thirty shares of American Light and Traction Company's stock as collateral for the purchase of 100 shares of Ohio Oil. He never saw his stock again nor did he receive a receipt for it. The stock, he said, had been sold. "Do you know that of your own knowledge, or is it hearsay?" asked Lyman. "I know it." Then Lyman wanted to know if the witness brought anything else to New York, which he hadn't put in evidence. "Yes," replied Mr. Verdier, "but they wouldn't be presentable in court."

"What are they?" pursued Lyman. "My personal feelings toward you."

Benedict Yacht Party Back.

GREENWICH, Conn., June 2.—Commodore E. G. Benedict, aboard his yacht the Onida, dropped anchor late yesterday in Indian Harbor, here, after a ten-days' fishing trip to Chesapeake Bay. He brought back a fine catch of bass and blue fish. Among his guests were P. P. Lynch of New York, Mrs. A. W. Klein and little niece of Greenwich, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Huntington of New Rochelle.

Carrington S. Smith Dead.

Carrington Shepard Smith, a brother of City Court Justice Richard T. Smith, died suddenly yesterday morning at Brentwood Hospital, Long Island. He was 18 years old and a lineal descendant of Richard Smith, founder of Smithtown, L. I., who acquired the title of "The Bull Rider" in the early days because he secured deed to a large tract of land by riding a bull around it.
